

CenturyLink celebrates International Women's Day

MONROE, La., March 8, 2018 /PRNewswire/ -- On International Women's Day, CenturyLink's (NYSE: CTL) Women Empowered employee resource group will host events around the world. The events will include a viewing of an International Women's Day Leadership Spotlight video featuring a discussion with CenturyLink's Lisa Miller, President - Wholesale, Indirect Channels and Alliances and Laurinda Pang, President - International & Global Accounts Management. After the video viewing, participants will engage in a roundtable discussion which includes several dynamic topics.

The goal of this year's events is to spark conversation, celebrate the contributions of women around the world and highlight the strength of women leaders at CenturyLink.

The main goals of the company's employee resource groups are employee development, community involvement, and customer and shareholder support. Women Empowered is CenturyLink's largest employee resource group with more than 1,800 members in 18 states and five countries.

In addition to the International Women's Day events, CenturyLink produced a video series entitled, "A Day in the Life of CenturyLink Women," highlighting the significant accomplishments of female leaders throughout the company. The series will be distributed internally to employees and then shared externally via social media.
