

2017 British Safety Council's Five Star Audit Award for Former-Level 3 Communications UK Operations

July 11, 2017

The Five Star Audit process involves an in-depth examination of an organisation's entire health and safety management system(s) and associated arrangements, focusing on the key aspects of their approach to managing occupational health and safety in the workplace and offers a structured path for continual improvement towards best practice status.

<https://news.lumen.com/awards?item=1023>