

CenturyLink honored with Frost & Sullivan's Growth Excellence Leadership award for VoIP access and SIP trunking services

September 5, 2018

Frost & Sullivan identified several factors driving CenturyLink's success, including significant growth in the VoIP access and SIP trunking services market through a highly effective merger strategy and carefully considered product integration approach. The company was also recognized for having one of the most diverse communications products and services portfolios in the industry.

<https://news.lumen.com/awards?item=1043>